Rosan Sapkota is an accomplished international entrepreneur, investor, and senior finance professional, serving as Managing Director and Founder with over two decades of leadership experience across education, hospitality, recruitment, infrastructure, and natural resources, spanning the United Kingdom, Europe, Africa, and South Asia.

A Fellow Certified Chartered Accountant (FCCA), Rosan brings deep expertise in financial governance, institutional oversight, and strategic development. He also holds a Higher National Diploma in Hospitality Management from the United Kingdom and a Diploma in Hotel & Motel Management from the United States, giving him a rare combination of financial discipline and operational leadership.

Entrepreneurial & Investment Leadership

Rosan began his entrepreneurial journey in the UK by founding Everest Spice Restaurants in Surrey and Sussex in 2007, successfully building and sustaining a respected multi-location hospitality name. Since 2017, he has expanded into recruitment, office management, and subcontracting services, operating businesses across the UK and Ukraine, delivering scalable workforce and operational solutions.

In 2025, Rosan co-established a precious metal mining exploration company in Zambia, in partnership with HRS Senior Sekute of Kazungula, reflecting his continued focus on cross-border investment and international collaboration. He is also a long-term investor in Nepal's renewable energy sector, serving as:

- Investor and Board Member, Maulakalika Hydroelectric Power Project (since 2019)
- Investor, Lower Rawa Khola Hydroelectric Power Project, Eastern Nepal (since 2018)

These roles demonstrate his commitment to sustainable infrastructure development and long-term national impact.

Senior Corporate & Finance Leadership

Alongside entrepreneurship, Rosan has held senior finance leadership roles within multinational organisations, including:

- EAME Finance Manager, Geotrace Technologies Limited
- Deputy Head of Finance, Daikin UK Limited
- Finance Manager, Renaissance London Heathrow Hotel & London Heathrow Marriott Hotel

Earlier in his career, he progressed through operational and management roles (Front Desk Manager, Guest Relations Manager) within internationally branded hotels, giving him a strong foundation in people leadership, service excellence, and organisational culture.

He continues to play an active role in guiding institutional strategy, partnerships, and international collaboration.
